

Palestine 87

A film by BILAL ALKHATIB

LOGLINE : A story from the First Intifada 1987, where love, at the hardest times and strangest places, conquers everything and finds its way to Atef and Mariam hearts.

SYNOPSIS: During the First Palestinian Intifada 1987, Atef is chased by the Israeli army, finds himself trapped in an alleyway. An old lady hides him in the bath where her granddaughter Mariam taking a shower. it is a weird situation, they both battle their mixed feelings which soon grow into admiration and warmth following the soldiers' departure.

Biography

Bilal Alkhatib is a filmmaker from Palestine, based in Ramallah and holds BA Media and TV from Al Quds University. He started working in film industry as cameraman and studio technician, before he realised his passion for filmmaking and joined the crews of many films as cameraman, focus puller, lighting manager and gaffer; a diversified experience that shaped his filmmaking potentials.

Year of Production: 2022

Country of Production: Palestine

Running time: 12min 40sec

Dialogue: Arabic | Hebrew

Subtitles: English

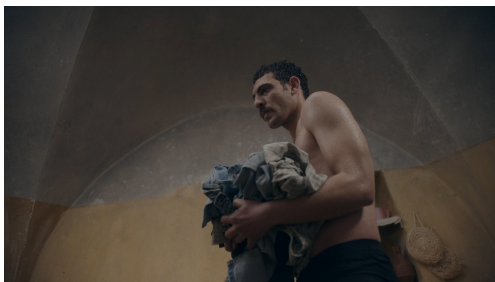

Category: Short Narrative

Shooting format: ALEXA Mini LF | ARRI | 4.2K

Aspect ratio: 1.78:1

Sound mix: 5.2 Surround

CAST: Shebly Al baw | Maya Omayya Keesh | Esperanza Abed Hussein | Haitham Alomari | Akram Mansour.

Writer and director Bilal Alkhatib | Producer Bilal Alkhatib, Salim Abu Jabal, Rafia Oraidi

Director of photography Mashal kawasmi | Sound Isam Rishmawi | Sound Mix Issam Murad

Production Designer Bashar Alhroub | Costume Designer Hamada Atallah | Color Correction

Nour Abukamal | Music Sabreen Association | Co- Producer Mashal kawasmi

Supported by
Filmlab Palestine
Palestinian Cultural Fund/ Ministry of Cultural Consulat Général de France à Jérusalem

Contact Details

Bilal Alkhatib

Director, Writer, Producer

+970 59 8914544

matarbilal45@gmail.com